

CSUMB Archaeology Field School

Summer 2003

CSUMB's Archaeology Institute, in collaboration with Ohlone/ Costonoan Esselen Nation, offers a great opportunity to participate in an investigation of Carmel Valley prehistory. The field school will be directed by Susan Morley, M.A., R.P.A.

Haliotis Kuksu pendant

- Students will learn professional
  - ☐ archaeological field techniques that
  - ☐ will include: field survey, site mapping,
  - ☐ site identification, note taking, field
  - ☐ excavation, profiling, and initial field
  - ☐ processing.
- Students will have the opportunity to
  - ☐ learn about the prehistory of the
  - ☐ region.
- Students will work with the local
  - ☐ indigenous peoples whose ancestors
  - ☐ have lived in the Monterey area for
  - ☐ thousands of years.
- Students from all community colleges
  - ☐ and universities, as well as those
  - ☐ interested in avocational archaeology,
  - ☐ are welcome. No previous field
  - ☐ experience is necessary, but an open
  - ☐ mind and willingness to work
  - ☐ collaboratively is required.

Have you ever wondered about the archaeology of prehistoric cultures in California?

What can we learn about the Esselen people who flourished in the Carmel Valley for thousands of years?

Prehistoric rock art from CA-SBN-213.

- Interested in the native cultures of
  - ☐ California?
- Ever think about a career in
  - ☐ archaeology?
- Would you like to earn four hours
  - ☐ of college credit in three weeks?
- Want to become qualified as an
  - ☐ archaeology field technician?
- Always wanted to go on a dig?
- Want to learn how to do
  - ☐ geophysical surveys?

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
Monterey Bay

For more information please contact:
susan_morley@csumb.edu
or call Lilly Martinez (SBSI): 831-582-4364