

Registration for Class

Registration for this field school may be completed online at the CSU,

Monterey Bay web site at <http://dlee.monterey.edu>,

where you can download and complete the registration forms, or by way of snail mail by writing DLEE (CSUMB Distance Learning and Extended Education, 100 Campus Center, Seaside, CA 93955-9001) and asking for a copy of the DLEE Registration form, which may be returned by mail or via fax at: 831-582-3741. Academic fees for this field course are set at the standard rate of $114.00 per unit for a total of four credit hours. Matriculated (CSUMB) students should add $14 to that amount for every 4 units of credit. Non-matriculated students (non-CSUMB students) should add $39.00 to the aforementioned registration fee.

About Dr. Ruben Mendoza

Dr. Mendoza is the Director of the Institute of Archaeology at CSU Monterey Bay and one of its Founding Faculty. He is a charter member of the California Missions Foundation. In addition, he has numerous publications and multimedia projects to his credit dealing with the California missions and Spanish colonial archaeology. His ongoing excavations at Mission San Juan Bautista (1995-present) have been instrumental in the understanding of this Mission's colorful, yet often misunderstood past. For further info please contact Dr. Mendoza at (831) 582-3760, or by email at ruben_mendoza@monterey.edu.

DLEE Registration Form
100 Campus Center
Seaside, CA 93955-8001

Archaeology of a California Mission

*Old Mission San Juan Bautista –
A Field School with Dr. Ruben Mendoza,
Director of the Institute of Archaeology,
CSU, Monterey Bay.*

SBSC 260s/360s: Summer 2001

June 4th - June 29th, 2001

Excavation

